hotel guidelines for the rosen shingle creek resort ...

- These guidelines are non-negotiable! Your group is your responsibility and must adhere to these guidelines.
- Each group must have a designated Group Leader as well as an adequate number of chaperones. The Group Leader will be on call with Hotel Security, to handle any disturbances after curfew, and will be held responsible for the control of the group while in the hotel.
- A $500 fine will be paid to the hotel for any tampering with a fire extinguisher, alarms, sprinklers or for calling 911. A charge of malicious mischief by Orange County Sheriffs Department may apply, which can result in 24 hours in jail and a $500 fine.
- All guests must keep noise to a minimum at all times as to not disturb other guests. It is asked that group members avoid excessive noise and congregating in hallways. Always remember you are not the only guests in the hotel. Use your inside voice!
- The Group Leader will be notified of any noise complaints caused by group members.
- At no time will excessively loud CD's, radios, musical instruments, singing or outdoor activities be permitted on hotel premises.
- Harassment of hotel guests or staff is not tolerated at any time. Any person observed to be acting in a harassing manner will be asked to leave the property immediately.
- There will be no rough-housing, basketball, football, capture the flag or any other games on the hotel's property. The fenced in area around the pool has been designated for lounging and recreation only.
- Pranks of any kind will not be tolerated.
- If other guests check-out of the hotel due to your group's improper behavior, your group will be charged for the amount of the hotel's lost revenue.
- When arriving back to your room after the Friday night Fusion event, for the comfort of other guests, there should be NO talking in the halls near other guest rooms.
- Upon check-out, all group rooms will be inspected by hotel personnel. If there is damage or hotel items or linens are missing from your group's rooms, the undersigned group accepts full responsibility for restitution. Payment will include cost of material and labor expenses.
